

This Earth Day, it's easy being green

Switch to paperless eStatements today!

This Earth Day, you can help us help the environment by switching to paperless eStatements through DS Online.

eStatements are official RBC Dominion Securities account statements that you can view online, save to your computer and print whenever necessary. That means you no longer have to wait for your paper statements to arrive in the mail.

Not only are eStatements more timely and convenient than paper statements, they are also better for the environment. By choosing eStatements along with our other clients, you can help us conserve 3,364 trees, 12 million litres of water and 1.75 million kilowatt hours of energy annually.

Official statements with enhanced security eStatements are 100% official statements – just like your old paper statements. But unlike paper statements, they are only accessible through DS Online, which is protected by your confidential password and the latest 128-bit encryption technology. They can't get lost or damaged in the mail.

The choice is yours

You can choose to keep your old paper statements if you prefer, or you can enjoy the convenience of eStatements. If you are already using DS Online, simply click on the "Statements" link on the your DS Online homepage and follow the steps. If you haven't signed up for DS Online yet, or have any questions about eStatements, please contact us for assistance.

Signing up for eStatements is easy as 1-2-3

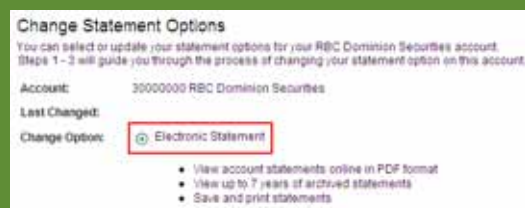

If you already have DS Online access ...
