

Make more of your investment and retirement savings

10 Strategies to Maximize Income and Minimize Taxes

Whether you are planning for your upcoming retirement or are currently retired, it's always a good idea to explore tax-minimizing opportunities.

Join us for an informative seminar that will discuss strategies and benefits that will help you enjoy, build and protect your wealth.

- Creating tax-efficient income from your investments;
- Income splitting, spousal RRSPs and other family tax strategies;
- The value of different investment products; and
- Standard and sophisticated strategies to maximize income in retirement.

“You deserve more in your retirement, we can help.”

If you are unable to attend our seminar but would like more information, or would like to be added to our list for future invitations, please contact us.
