Bassam Touchan Private Banker

“Finding effective solutions for tomorrow, today.”

Bassam Touchan holds an MBA and the Certified Management Accountant designation, which he earned in 2007, and is a Financial Planner. After joining RBC in 2001, Mr. Touchan assumed various roles in the Gatineau region, providing an array of personal banking services. In that time, he developed expertise in managing investments and an in-depth knowledge of financial planning software.

Mr. Touchan became a Private Banker in 2009, putting his diverse experience to the service of high net worth clients who seek exceptional, personalized service. “My grasp of wealth management is based on my customer service experience, as well as my business knowledge. I am attuned to my clients' financial concerns – whether they revolve around retirement planning or managing all of their day-to-day transactions.”

Mr. Touchan also makes a point of finding effective solutions for tomorrow, today. He supports his clients through every stage of the financial planning process, addressing each client's personal, professional and family needs. “We review each client's priorities and quickly deliver a tailored solution. Backed by our team of professionals, we have the expertise we need to grow each portfolio.”

The RBC Private Banking team provides total wealth management and advisory services. “Given the diversity of RBC's businesses and its reputation in national and international markets, clients know they can expect quality and competence.”
