At RBC, we recognize that investment advisory services are just one key part of an overall wealth management plan. Our comprehensive wealth management approach extends beyond investment advice and management, encompassing lifestyle protection, retirement planning, intergenerational wealth transfer and legacy creation.

Your Investment Advisor offers you access to comprehensive wealth management solutions available throughout the RBC network, including the industry-leading RBC Wealth Management Services team. This team consists of more than 100 lawyers, accountants, financial planners, insurance consultants and other specialists, who provide various services to help you address your specific financial, tax, retirement and legacy planning concerns. As a client, you are entitled to many of these services on a complimentary basis.
