

RBC WEALTH MANAGEMENT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC.

ARNE PERRIN, B.COMM (HONS), CFP

Vice President and Estate Planning Specialist

Arne Perrin has been with RBC since 2000. He focuses on inter-generational wealth transfer, and succession and transition planning for family businesses, entrepreneurs and high-net-worth individuals. His goal is to help ensure your wealth is transferred to your heirs more efficiently and in accordance with your wishes.

Specializing in estate planning, Arne provides solutions to various wealth management issues using insurance-based strategies. Arne can focus on both personal and corporate insurance solutions to help increase your net worth and reduce the impact of taxation today and at death.

The process involves understanding your personal and corporate objectives, and then providing information on Wills, incapacitation and trust planning. Arne then works together with your accounting and legal advisors toward developing an integrated estate plan.

Arne's commerce degree is specialized in "Entrepreneurial Management." He is also a member of the Professional Advisory Committee for the Business Family Centre at the UBC Sauder School of Business.

COMPREHENSIVE INSURANCE PLANNING

Working closely with your advisor, Arne employs a comprehensive process to assess your wealth management needs and then recommends creative, tax-exempt insurance strategies to help address them. For more complicated situations, he works with your other professional advisors in the development of appropriate solutions.

Arne Perrin can focus on both personal and corporate insurance solutions to help increase your net worth, reduce the impact of taxation and secure your wealth through a variety of life insurance, annuity, and living benefits solutions. He can also assist you in structuring your insurance contracts to ensure your wealth is transferred to your heirs in accordance with your wishes. To help you receive high-quality, cost-effective insurance solutions, Arne evaluates various insurance offerings from Canada's top-ranked insurance providers.
