Introducing Nicole Todosichuk Will & Estate Consultant

Nicole received her Bachelor of Commerce Degree (Dean's List) in 1991 and her Bachelor of Law degree in 1999 from the University of British Columbia. She clerked at the British Columbia Supreme Court from 1999 to 2000 and was called to the British Columbia Bar in 2000. Nicole has also completed the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants In-depth Tax Course.

Prior to joining RBC, Nicole practised law for ten years in downtown Vancouver, first at a national law firm and then at a boutique tax and trust law firm. Nicole's practice focused on the implementation of tax and estate plans, Wills, domestic and offshore trusts, charities and business succession. Nicole is a member of The Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP), the Canadian Bar Association Wills and Trusts Section and Charities Section and the Canadian Association of Gift Planners. Nicole's significant practical experience in estate planning allows her to offer valuable guidance in the development of your estate plan.

COMPLIMENTARY WILL & ESTATE PLANNING CONSULTATION

In appreciation of your valued business relationship with us, your advisor is pleased to offer you a complimentary Will & Estate Planning consultation with Nicole, a Will & Estate Consultant.

Nicole works closely with your advisor to provide you with information on structuring your estate in an efficient and tax-effective manner. Following your meeting, Nicole will provide you with a report outlining various estate planning issues for you to explore in further detail with your own lawyer or accountant.

To schedule a meeting with Nicole Todosichuk, please contact your advisor.
