Hema Gandhi
Private Client Insurance Specialist

Hema is a Private Client Insurance Specialist, with over 30 years of experience as a financial advisor and insurance specialist.

She prides herself on using her skillset and credentials to help clients protect what matters most to them - their family, assets, wealth and lifestyle. Hema is down to earth and understands that everyone's situation is unique. She defines options to clients in real-life terms and based on their circumstances, recommends a solution that best fits their needs.

Hema is honored to have worked for RBC Insurance as well as Aviva since 2008. In her time, she has gained knowledge of various risk exposures to help clients navigate insurance policies and provide them with peace of mind.

Hema grew up in London, England, and moved to Canada when she married. She has two adult children. She enjoys singing, dancing, hiking, and volunteering at charitable organizations.

Currently, Hema is working on her Chartered Insurance professional designation and holds a Life & Accident Sickness agent's license.
