As a Premier Banking Advisor for the Windsor, Sarnia, Chatham area, Chantal Chen works as a single point of contact, providing banking and credit solutions for select clients of Wealth Management Canada and their families. Partnering with Investment Advisors and Counsellors across the region, she provides personalized service and tailored advice to help clients save time and effectively manage their day to day banking needs.

With 17 years of experience in financial services industry and 12 years with RBC, Chantal is respected by her clients, her peers in the industry, and has enjoyed success in several different roles. Prior to this role, she worked as Branch manager, Manager Credit Adjudication Central Canada and as a Senior Account Manager Business Markets.

Committed to giving back to her community, Chantal has volunteered as part of the Board of Directors for the Sarnia Lambton Chamber of Commerce. She also participated in the Weekend to End Women's Cancer where she raised over $2,000 and walked 60 kilometers in 2 days.

Born in Burlington, Ontario, and raised in London, Ontario, Chantal has many connections to the Southern Ontario market. She currently resides in the Sarnia area and when she isn't hard at work for her clients, you'll find her paddleboarding on one of Canada's beautiful Great Lakes, or riding a motorcycle. She is an avid traveler and cultural explorer.
