

Update from Ord Private Wealth Management

Our team will be working remotely starting March 18, 2020

Based on the recent guidelines around social distancing due to COVID-19, we wanted to advise you that our team will be working remotely out of the office starting Wednesday, March 18th. We will have access to all of the same programs as we do at the office, so there will not be any major differences in how we can service our clients. Please continue to contact us via phone or email as you normally would, as we will have our lines forwarded to our cell phones during business hours.

One thing to note: based on the limited support staff that will be working out of our Toronto office, we are unable to accept or issue cheques for the time being. All other transfers of cash (electronic funds transfers, wires) are still available. If you were planning on sending in a cheque, please contact us to discuss any alternative options.

We appreciate your understanding, as I'm sure you are also having to make changes to your daily lives during this public health concern.

Please don't hesitate to contact us with any questions or concerns.
