As Private Banker, Scott Christie provides comprehensive financial management and innovative banking solutions for high-net-worth clients in Halifax, the South Shore and Cape Breton Island.

Mr. Christie brings 25 years of financial services expertise to his role, including 15 years providing financial planning advice and counsel to professionals, their families and their business as financial planner with RBC. Drawing on this experience, he now acts as a trusted advisor to his clients, and facilitates their access to customized solutions, including complex credit structures, tax and wealth planning. When needed, he will partner with a broad range of specialists across RBC to deliver investment management, Wills and estate planning, commercial banking, business succession planning and trust structures.

Originally from Bedford, Nova Scotia, Mr. Christie has called Halifax home since 1991. He holds a bachelor's degree from Saint Mary's University and the Personal Financial Planner (PFP) designation, which adds additional insight and perspective to his client conversations.

Mr. Christie is married, and the proud father of two teenage daughters. He volunteers regularly with the Parker Street Food and Furniture Bank and the Sail Nova Scotia Handicap Committee, whose work focuses on making high-performance sailing and boating lifelong activities for Nova Scotians.
