

MARS BAR TREAT

6 Mars Bars (52g size)
2/3 cup butter
4 cups Rice Krispies cereal

1 ¼ cup chocolate chips (Milk or dark or semisweet....your choice)
1/3 cup butter

Instructions

Begin by lightly greasing a 9x9 inch baking pan and lining it with parchment paper.

Chop the Mars Bars into small pieces.

In a medium sized saucepan over low heat, melt the 2/3 cup butter.

Add the Mars bars and stir constantly until fully melted and smoothly incorporated into the butter.

Remove from heat and quickly stir in the Rice Krispies cereal.

Press evenly into the bottom of the prepared pan and chill for about an hour before adding the chocolate top.

To prepare the chocolate top

Melt the 1/3 cup of butter over low heat in a double boiler.

Then add the chocolate chips and stir constantly until the chocolate is completely melted.

Pour evenly over the cookie base and let set until firm, before cutting into squares or bars.

Store the cookie bars in airtight containers, in the freezer for up to 3 months.
