Best Private Bank in Canada

Global Private Banking Awards 2020

RBC was named Best Private Bank in Canada for a ninth consecutive year in the Global Private Banking Awards 2020, presented by PWM (Professional Wealth Management), and The Banker magazines. RBC Wealth Management was noted for its holistic wealth planning and advisor training on intergenerational and business wealth transfer.

The PWM/The Banker Global Private Banking Awards recognize and reward excellence in wealth management among banks from the Americas, Europe, Asia, the Middle East and Africa, based on rigorous qualitative and quantitative industry-reviewed judging process. These include progress against business model and growth strategies, client service, staff retention, as well as measures taken to build a client-centered culture.

Outstanding Global Private Bank – North America

Private Banker International Global Wealth Awards 2020
Winning the award for Outstanding Global Private Bank – North America for a fifth consecutive year recognizes RBC Wealth Management as a leader among global wealth management firms from across North America.

The Private Banker International Global Wealth Awards are determined through a rigorous qualitative and quantitative industry-reviewed judging process. Key criteria of the awards include firms that demonstrate a clear and unique strategy to grow their business, have made the most investment in people and systems, show the most innovation in products and services, and offer demonstrably superior client services.
